

About the Instructor

Li-Hwa Lee is a NJ State certified teacher. She graduated with her Master's degree in Counseling and Guidance from The Ohio State University. During the decades of working within education field, Li-Hwa had been a Teacher, a Director of Curriculum, and a Principal. Since 1991, Li-Hwa has devoted herself to the Kumon Program and integrated her lifetime interest in children's education with the Kumon method. With her profound educational professionalism and her dedication to the Kumon Method, she has provided high quality of educational services and has earned her reputation in the community.

In 1997 and 1998, Li-Hwa was appointed as an honored member of the "Advisor Instructor Committee". She represented the New Jersey Branch to give suggestions to Kumon North America to improve the Kumon Method. In 2000, she served as a member of the "Worksheet Committee" to offer suggestions to revise the Kumon curriculum. Currently, she is an Elite Instructor and serves as a mentor to help a fellow instructor in the NJ Branch.

In her 15 years of Kumon service, Li-Hwa has instructed hundreds of students to reach their Kumon goals. Many of them have attended prestigious universities. It is her belief that every child is an achiever. As always, Li-Hwa strives to provide the best quality of services and to foster the growth of children minds in our community.
